

About Community Strategies

WE EMPOWER PEOPLE WITH INTELLECTUAL OR DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES TO LIVE AS INDEPENDENTLY AS POSSIBLE.

What we do at CS

The Community Strategies division of Community Resources for Justice supports more than 260 adults with developmental or intellectual disabilities through specialized residential and day programs in Massachusetts and New Hampshire.

We believe that every individual is unique and deserves to be treated with respect and dignity. Our programs empower individuals to be themselves in a supportive home environment where they can pursue their own interests through hobbies, work, and volunteering.

The people we support don't just live in the community; they actively enrich and strengthen it.

Our impact in FY21

265 individuals lived happier, more independent lives through CRJ's programs for adults with developmental disabilities.

42 residential programs in Massachusetts and New Hampshire provided supportive home environments for individuals in our care.

50 individuals received services through our Shared Living program, which provides residential services in private homes with qualified providers.

We're united by our values — they shape our attitude and drive our work.
